Peace of mind

MANY Australians in their 50s and 60s are shifting into another phase in their lives and are looking for a new place to call home. They recognise the value of belonging to a strong community that keeps them in contact with others and are seeking a location where they feel a sense of belonging. Of equal importance to them is a strong sense of safety - both physical and financial.

"Lifestyle Communities builds and operates affordable, luxurious and secure resort communities for active independent seniors," says Dael Perlov, Director Lifestyle Communities. "All of our communities have gated entrances and on-site managers and are a welcoming neighbourhood of fellow homeowners."

Construction will start soon at Lifestyle Shepparton, bringing an affordable, resort community to Shepparton for those seeking a new lease on life. Sales have commenced so be quick. Prices start from only $164,900 for a fully landscaped home in the village. Contact the team for an information session by calling Julie on 5831 1133.
